JUNIOR CAMP ROCKS AT HOLLYROCK!

Not only did the Sr. Camp have fun at the Hollyrock Game Show, but the Jr. Camp also had a fun time of their own! The Jr. Camp version was held after the Sr. Camp show and had quiz show questions and physical challenges geared towards a younger audience.

While the Sr. Camp show had Red vs White teams, the Jr. Camp show pitted the boys vs the girls! This year, the girls outwitted and outplayed the boys and coasted to a victory!

NABBY NOSTALGIA

While a lot of our former campers have fond memories of their Nabby summers, we're featuring two counselors who will have lifelong memories of their summers here. After being named co-captains of the Red team for the Apache Relay in 2014, Elyse Blueglass and Joe Macchi teamed up only to have their team finish last that year. Really last. By a lot.

Well, they may have lost the Apache Relay, but they won at love... they're engaged to be married in November of 2020!

Joe is currently a PE teacher at Lakeland and Elyse teaches kindergarten in Tarrytown. When asked about their time at Nabby, they said, "We both loved working at Nabby. It brought us great memories, great friendships and each other!"

Congratulations!!!

THE SOUND OF NABBY MUSIC!

If you're walking by the Nabby stage and happen to hear incredible operatic voices, it's not Spotify or Apple Music or iTunes or, if you're over 40, a CD! Those voices belong to our talented music counselors - Lee, Jillian and Madison.

Head counselor Lee Compton is not only an accomplished vocalist, but plays multiple instruments including the trumpet and mandolin. Lee hails from North Carolina and received a masters degree in voice from the University of North Carolina School of the Arts. Lee has performed as a tenor with the Atlanta Opera and the NYC Opera. He's also been a member of the American Symphony Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic. During the school year Lee teaches general music and band at the Greenwood Lake Middle School. Lee has two children attending Nabby, Rafael in Penn and Carolina in Jackson.

Camp Nabby is very fortunate to have someone as experienced as Lee as our music director!

Jillian Agona will be a junior at Boston University and is majoring in Classical Vocal Performance. Madison Pezzello will be a junior at Yorktown High School and is a member of the Dance Company. Both Jillian and Madison are triple threats as they love to sing, dance and act!

All day long music can be heard coming from the Nabby stage. The Jr. Campers have music weekly and are not only learning to sing and dance, but are also being introduced to recorders, rhythm sticks and African Djembe drums! It's not unusual see our music staff leading a musical parade of junior campers throughout the grounds playing a host of various instruments.

Senior campers can elect to have music as an interest period where they can receive instruction from Lee on their instruments or sing and dance on stage with Jillian and Madison.

The highlight of the summer for our music staff is the Junior Camp Musical which is held the last week of camp. This year's show will be "Nabby Goes To Broadway" and promises to be fantastic! Songs from past and present musicals will be featured and it's a morning you definitely don't want to miss. So mark, circle and highlight those calendars for August 21st at 10AM!

NABBY SOCCER: GO TEAM!

Nabby campers learn soccer, sportsmanship and teamwork in a fun and encouraging environment from Coach Caroline Turner. This is Coach Caroline's third year bringing her creative, unique, high-energy program, GO TEAM! to Camp Nabby. With level appropriate activities, GO TEAM! serves as a great introduction to soccer...helping young campers master developmental milestones, and helping older, more experienced campers take their game to the next level. Caroline's energy and love for the game is infectious! The curriculum is age-appropriate, and incorporates fun individual, partner and team activities. Our Nabby campers enjoy games including treasure hunts, "pac man", "monster kick", "beat the coach" and obstacle courses as they become team players both on and off the field.

Caroline is passionate about building confidence and teamwork in youth. She is proud to be a Camp Nabby Specialist. "When I met Joe and Rita and we talked about our philosophies, I knew this was the perfect fit for my program and the best camp experience for my daughter." Coach Caroline's daughter, Maren, is a happy 3rd year camper who says she wants to attend Camp Nabby "her whole life."

When she is not at Nabby, Coach Caroline can be found on fields across Westchester County. Coach Caroline is available for private lessons, birthday parties, small group skills training and classes for ages 2-15, including tot and me classes.

HAPPENINGS IN THE ART SHACK!

The Art Shack at Nabby has three new inhabitants this year. Head counselor Daniela Saccomanno is assisted by Ava Briccetti and Claire Clifford and they have a lot of fun projects for the campers! The Jr. Campers have art on their weekly schedule and the Sr. Campers are able to choose art as an afternoon interest period.

Daniela is a teaching assistant in Special Education at Carmel High School during the school year and has two children who "absolutely love this camp"! Richie is in Columbia and Demi is in Wells.

Ava will be a senior at Yorktown High School and Claire will also be entering her senior year at Mahopac High School this Fall. Daniela is very excited about spending the summer at Nabby with a goal to encourage the campers to use their imagination and be creative. She feels that in art there is no one way to do something so there are really no mistakes. Some of the crafts the campers will be working on will be friendship bracelets, lanyards and various wood projects. The Art Shack will also feature some fun projects based on the works of Van Gogh, Eric Carl and Dr. Seuss. Also, each week Daniela will ask the campers to choose one very special thing they enjoyed about camp that week and, using their imagination, to draw and recreate it in their Camp Nabby Memory Journal.

Both the Sr. and Jr. Campers line up every Friday for lanyard supplies handed out by the art counselors. By the end of the summer, their Nabby bags will have multiple different colored lanyards hanging from them!

We hope you enjoy the wonderful artwork and craft projects your children bring home!

COLOR WAR

The third Epic Event for Color War was the Hollyrock Game Show held Wednesday afternoon. The Hollyrock Game Show consists of both mental and physical challenges that are age appropriate for the campers. With it's quiz show format, campers are asked questions about subjects ranging from food to sports to US history to math...just to name a few. The Sr. Camp's Red and White teams also competed in physical challenges in everything from hula hooping, Simon Says and a Tug of War to rack up points for their team. The highlight of the physical competitions had to be the dance off. Counselors Stefan and Griffin both had way too many good moves to declare a winner, so both teams earned 100 points! At the end of the show, the White team was victorious earning 1,800 points to the Red team's 1,600 points. An extra 1,000 points were awarded to both teams for their enthusiastic cheering and good sportsmanship!

Despite their victory, the White team, at 4,900 points, still trails the Red team, at 5,400 points, in the overall standings. But it's getting really close...

Both teams are aiming for Predator and Prey victories next week!

WHITE TEAM - 4900

RED TEAM - 5400
