

PENN COUNSELORS RULE THE POOL IN THE BELLYFLOP CONTEST!

JUNIOR CAMP MUSICAL SALUTES BROADWAY!

Join us as Nabby Goes to Broadway in 2019!

On Wednesday, August 21st at 10AM, our junior campers will be performing songs from Broadway classics like The Sound of Music, Annie and Peter Pan. We'll also be taking on hits from new smash shows like Frozen, Footloose, Rock of Ages, Wicked, and even offering our very own Nabby twist on Hamilton! The show will only last an hour and we ask all parents to stay till the end for our finale!

We're excited to bring you a taste of the great white way from our very own Nabby stage...who knows, you may be seeing a future TONY winner take their first steps to stardom!

THERE WILL BE PLENTY OF PARKING FOR THE SHOW ON OUR UPPER FIELD. THE MAIN GATE WILL OPEN AT 9:30AM TO ALLOW TIME TO PARK AND GET TO YOUR SEATS ON THE NABBY STAGE.

FRANK BERTINO MEMORIAL SOFTBALL GAME

The 21st annual Frank Bertino softball game between the Sr. Camp counselors and the Jr. Camp counselors was held Thursday evening.

This game began in 1998 to honor the memory of Frank, whose background in athletics transformed Nabby into the camp it is today. Highlights included Maureen's slide into home, Luke's massive home run, Mike's diving catch and Cyan's fielding. The Jr. Camp counselors put up a fight, but went down to defeat to the Sr. Camp, 32 to 10.

LIP SYNC FINALS SET!

The last counselor Lip Sync Contest semi final was held this week with both contestants lip syncing to songs sung by the opposite sex. Chris from tennis was adorable in his blond wig and tutu as he sung along to "Lip Gloss" my Lil Mama. He had some help from backup dancers Ashley and Taylor from Jackson.

SUPER HEROES VISIT NABBY!

Super Hero Day at Nabby had heroes from DC, Marvel and the Avengers participate in a super sized scavenger hunt in morning assembly. While the Flash may have had the quickest moves, it was Ironman and Batman who ended up in the finals! After finding the Golden Medallion, Batman was declared the winner.

Our Cubs (all dressed up for the day) loved the photo op with their heroes on the Nabby stage.

Mila and Marlon are super heroes ready to save the world!

Arielle showing her girl power as Wonder Woman!

Jason Momoa who??? Our Aquaman Cooper is our choice to rule the oceans!

WHY WE LOVE SUMMERS AT NABBY!

A summer at Nabby is magical and memorable for many reasons. From learning to swim to earning a blue band, to exploring nature trails and jumping in the "mud pit", to singing out loud at music and laughing out loud at counselor karaoke, celebrating Carnival fun and Apache Relay madness, welcoming Superheroes and coming together for Spirit Week.

Throughout it all - making new friends and reuniting with familiar ones is what makes all of these experiences the best part of summer camp.

Meeting new children from neighboring communities to form lasting friendships is something we are all very thankful for.

So here's to our special friendships at Nabby and all they have meant to us!

Here's to coming together as a team!

Here's to inspiring our friends to do their best and accomplish great things!

Here's to challenging ourselves to reach new heights!

Here's to dressing up and sharing crazy fun!

Here's to helping each other be comfortable on the Nabby stage!

Here's to gathering around the campfire and sharing cool stories!

Here's to teamwork makes the dream work!

CARNIVAL!!!

The Nabby Carnival was held on Wednesday and once again, the Sr. Camp groups as well as Bryn Mawr, Williams, Dartmouth and the LITs & CITs created and decorated fun booths for all the campers to enjoy. The campers dug for "diamonds", posed in the photo booth, played pong, had their faces painted, ran the H2O relay and slurped Rita's Italian ice - to name just a few of the activities available. And, of course, valuable prizes were handed out to all!!!

Awards were handed out to the following groups:

- Most Creative - Penn Quidditch Cup
- Most Original - Don't Fall Off Douglass
- Classic Carnival - Columbia Water Pong
- Most Popular - Tulane Toss
- Best Decorated - Jackson Photo Booth

Tigers...

And ducks...

And piggies! Oh my!!!

CARNIVAL NOSTALGIA

The Nabby pig has adorned Nabby walls, buildings and walkways for years. But, until the carnival in 2017, the pig had no name! After the "Name the Pig" booth collected entries from both campers and counselors, the winning name for our pig was "Sir Hamlet Pigglesworth"!!!

BELLYFLOP CONTEST MAKES A SPLASH!!!

The highly anticipated Counselor Bellyflop contest saw a Nabby first this week. The final two contestants were counselors from the same group-Penn!

Nabby campers surrounded the pool waiting for the first round of 30 counselor competitors as the four judges were introduced. After the first round, the five counselors with the highest scores moved on to the semi-final. The good news for these five counselors was that they made it - the bad news was that they had to flop again!

The judges scores then put Nick and Mike, both Penn counselors, into the finals and yet ANOTHER flop! Ouch!!! Final judging was in the hands of the campers who then determined Nick was the winner with their applause. So Nick, already riding high as the winner of the previous week's Apache Relay, achieved the Nabby perfecta!

Our winner Nick with his mentor, Duke camper Ty. Nick credits his success to the teachings and tips from Ty!

The judges practice using their scoring paddles - a score they actually used once!

Nick's perfect 40!!!

Semi finalist Kayla showing excellent form as the sole female left in the competition!

Runner up Mike gets plenty of air for his bellyflop!

Mike and Nick have some pretty red torsos after three rounds of flops!

CUBS

At nature, the Cubs enjoyed feeding the lizards and bunnies. Harriett and Scurry. The lizards were eating right out of their hands!

SMITH

The Smith Girls loved riding Maddie's Crazy Golf Cart ride at the Carnival.

CORNELL

The Cornell Girls were so excited to attend this year's Carnival and collect prizes

SKIDMORE

The Skidmore girls had a great week at camp! They loved making s'mores over the campfire at nature, enjoyed the Sr. Camp Super Fun Day and had a great time at the Carnival.

WELLS

The Wells girls went on the nature trail with Ranger Rick and loved eating the yummy s'mores!

BRYN MAWR

We are so excited to announce that all our girls have earned Blue Bands and can now swim together in the big pool!

BARNARD

It was all fun and games for Barnard at the world famous Nabby Carnival!

RADCLIFFE

Our Radcliffe girls danced into the last week of camp with an entertaining "Limbo" booth at the Carnival.

DOUGLASS

Diving into week eight, the Douglass girls competed against other campers in a twist on Tug of War.

JACKSON

Jackson put a special spin on Super Fun Day with their very own water balloon challenge and blindfolded volleyball with special guest Matt Bertino.

YALE

Nothing is better than ooey-gooey marshmallows and melted chocolate on our smiling boys faces after a long nature hike. We love s'mores!

PRINCETON

The Princeton boys have now scored a total of 190 runs in baseball. We are also excited to announce a Princeton all-time record of 120 holes-in-one and we are still counting!

BROWN

We will be saying goodbye to many good friends that we will share lifelong memories with. We look forward to the final week of camp and the Junior Camp musical.

DARTMOUTH

Our boys had fun exploring the entire Nabby grounds with our very own, spectacular scavenger hunt!

WILLIAMS

The Williams boys loved playing a hockey-inspired version of goalie dodgeball, complete with hockey nets!

COLUMBIA

Columbia enjoyed hosting their water pong booth at the Carnival.

DUKE

Duke had a blast playing the classic game of SPUD this week.

TULANE

Tulane hosted a Nabby favorite "Toss" booth at the carnival, testing the throwing accuracy of our campers.

PENN

Penn began a World Cup of Soccer competition and selected unique countries to represent. Ole, ole, ole!
