

WE'LL MISS YOU! SEE YOU NEXT SUMMER!

NABBY CROWNS A LIP SYNC CHAMPION!

Our counselor Lip Sync Contest drew to a close this week as Emma pulled out a finals win over Nico!

Nico brought the California (this editor is from CA...note we don't say "Cali" there!) spirit to Nabby through a variety of surf themed songs and mega tank top changes! Who knew Old Navy had so many colors? He ended his set with the songs, "Best Summer Ever" and "Summer Belongs to You". Perfectly summed up our last 8 weeks at Nabby! Emma rocked the stage and brought along her "posse", the girls from Cornell, to help her with her first selection - a Beyoncé workout song, "Move Your Body".

Then she changed up the tempo with a DJ Khaled song, "All I Do Is Win", complete with a crowd pleasing BACK FLIP! Of course, the vote was extremely close, but the back flip was a winning move for Emma!

Nico "surfing" on the Nabby stage!

Emma lip syncs to DJ Khalid's "All I Do Is Win"...premonition???

Emma's Cornell "posse" dancing with her to Beyoncé!

COLOR WAR FINALE!

Monday and Tuesday produced the closest Color War finish in Nabby history! After two days of competition in kickball, basketball, dodgeball, tennis, archery, handball, soccer, miniature golf, volleyball, and tennis racquet baseball, the 2017 Red vs White Senior Camp Color War came down to the final event on Tuesday...water polo. The red team had a lead of 5,600 points to the white team's 5,300 points going into the contest. To eliminate any possibility of a tie, the water polo point total was raised from 300 to 301! After a hard fought battle, the white team's 12 to 5 win gave them 5,601 points to the red team's 5,600 points to squeak out a victory and hoist the Color War Trophy!

OUR OFFICE STAFF

If you've ever phoned, emailed, wrote a note, or sent a medication to the office, you've been helped by our office staff. Ruth is in her fifth year as our office manager and a pro at multi-tasking on a daily basis. She works part time throughout the winter months alongside Joe and Rita and is ready to help you with any questions you might have concerning camp registration for 2018. Christine has been our camp nurse for nine years and has probably set a world record for the number of bandaids handed out in an eight week period! Ready with ice bags and a thermometer, she is always available for any minor scrapes or bumps our campers might get in an active camp day.

Stacy is in her second year at Nabby and not only helps in the office, but is also responsible for the "Group Scoop" portion of the Nabby News! Teresa is an office rookie this year and helps wherever she is needed and has been the "laundry angel" for our lost and found! All of these busy ladies each have two children who are Nabby campers...a true family affair!

The male lifeguards continued where they left off last year - entertaining the campers with their theatrical antics!

Alec danced with his maracas as Jake and Katie sang.

The dancing tacos and chef Lee performed to "It's Raining Tacos", a camp favorite!

COUNSELOR SHOW

Camp Nabby's last day of the summer season ended with the annual Counselor Show. America's Got Talent, The Voice, and Dancing with the Stars all pale in comparison to the talent exhibited by our Nabby counselors! There were so many highlights, but Alec playing the maracas, the male lifeguard's song and dance, the dancing tacos, and the senior camp male counselors as the Spice Girls were some special moments! Needless to say, even the blond wigs and tutus couldn't turn the male counselors into contestants for any beauty pageants!

The senior camp girl counselors were the Backstreet Boys and had a battle of the bands with the senior camp male counselors dressed as the Spice Girls!!!

Hmmm...hard to imagine any of these counselors being mistaken for the Spice Girls!

NABBY MUSICAL

Kudos to our terrific music staff! Director Lee Compton always puts on an amazing Jr. Camp Musical each year and this year's country western themed show was no exception! Sofia and Gianna helped all the groups with the choreography. The finale had all the campers and a lot of the audience kicking up their heels to "Cotton Eyed Joe"!!!

The parent press corps was out in full force for the Jr. Camp Musical!

Yale boys are "On the Road Again"!

Cornell girls singing "Our Song" by Taylor Swift.

Bates girls had incredible dance moves as they rocked out to "Hoedown Throwdown" by Miles Cyrus.

The girls from Wells had a young admirer as they sang "Teardrops On My Guitar" by Taylor Swift.

Vassar girls lassoed up their version of "Walking After Midnight" by Patsy Cline.

Williams boys sang "Life is a Highway" - complete with steering wheels!

Dartmouth boys were terrific as they performed "Big Green Tractor" by Jason Aldean.

The Stanford boys were HOT as they sang Johnny Cash's "Ring of Fire".

Our cute Cubs opened the show with "You Are My Sunshine". They've been our sunshine all summer with their adorable smiles!

The Princeton boys sang "La Bamba" in Spanish!!!

The girls of Bryn Mawr "played" the banjo and sang "Wagon Wheel" by Bob Dylan.

Harvard reminded us what a catchy tune "Achy Breaky Heart" was!

The Brown boys paid tribute to the late Gregg Allman with "Midnight Rider".

The Skidmore girls sang the beautiful ballad, "Landslide", by the Dixie Chicks.

What's not to love about the Smith girls? Here they are getting ready to perform "Love Story" by Taylor Swift.

Good-byes are not forever and good-byes are not the end. They simply mean I'll miss you until we meet again.
