WEEK 3 - JULY 16TH, 2021

A SPIRITED WEEK OF CELEBRATION

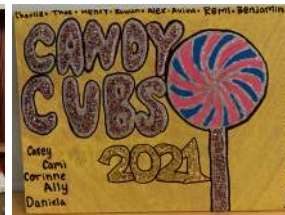

SPIRIT WEEK WAS FULL OF CHEER!

It was an amazing Spirit Week celebration every day this week as the entire camp celebrated Nabby spirit together! Throughout the week, our campers were entertained with performances on the Nabby stage, as each bunk showcased their group spirit with a custom "cheer", banner and plaque. Performances were out of this world and we were incredibly impressed with the creativity of all of our counselors and campers.

We ended the week with a display of all the group banners along our big pool wall, so the entire camp could share and marvel at all the wonderful work that was put into making this Spirit Week so special.

Enjoy the Spirit Week group photos in the back of this issue!!

BEHIND THE LENS AT NABBY

Nabby offers so many fun and exciting activities for our campers each day, but the person responsible for the most smiles in camp is our camp photographer, Kelly Vasami!

Kelly is here for her fourth summer at Nabby and loves capturing our campers in action. If you haven't yet seen her amazing photos, please go to the parent dashboard on campnabby.com and click on "Camp Today". You might just recognize some of the happy campers shown there!

In addition to capturing daily photos, Kelly also produces a weekly slide show that is shown during lunch on Pizza Fridays. Everyone loves seeing themselves on the big screen!

Kelly is the mother of two children at Nabby and her guilty pleasure is driving old stick shift sports cars!

During the year, she is busy photographing weddings, family portraits and real estate and can be reached by emailing kelly@kellyvasami.com.

You can also check out her work on her website - www.Kellyvasami.com.

HOLLYROCK GAMES ROCKED AND ROLLED!

The Hollyrock Game Show came to Camp Nabby this week and posed the age old question - who's smarter...boys or girls? Quiz master Alan has been coming to Nabby with his exciting show and quick sense of humor for 16 years, or as Alan remembers, "since Joe had a full head of brown hair!"

Not only did the show test the campers and counselors trivia knowledge, but it also had physical challenges to test the campers ability in hula hoops, Simon Sez, dancing, Tug of War and jump rope!

Age appropriate questions were asked of both campers and counselors alike with breakout stars who displayed amazing ability in their rapid fire answers. Camper Kyle from Penn and counselor Sam from Columbia led the way for a victory for the Senior camp boys with their performance in the trivia portion of the show. Sam said, "I live for this show!" and Kyle knew "I would do well, but not this well".

The highlight of the physical portion of the Senior camp show was the high energy dance-off between Music Counselor Jeana and Duke Counselor Vinnie. Both showed incredible moves with Jeana edging out Vinnie in a close competition.

The Junior Camp was assembled for the second show and this time the girls took the title. Leader in Training (LIT) Eva from Bates outlasted 2 worthy boy opponents to win the very tricky Simon Sez game and the junior girls showed their skills in both hula hoop and dance to overcome the boys prowess in the Tug of War. It was especially fun watching some of our Cubs and Pups in the dance contest!

Each show ended with big smiles and loud cheers as each and every camper had a blast!

EXPLORING CREATIVITY IN ART

One of our most treasured facilities at Nabby is the famed Arts & Crafts "shack", home to our fantastic Arts & Crafts program led by Janice Tota. Janice is in her second season at Nabby and has three children (Jack - Penn, Danny -Duke and CJ - Tufts) who love to say "hi" to their mom at camp.

Janice's goals for the program are for Nabby campers to simply enjoy art, use their imagination and most of all, be creative! To inspire their work, Janice develops weekly themes based on the Nabby calendar and seasonal events. For instance, "Star-Spangled Week" led up to our Red, White and Blue day and pictures were at the centerpiece of the week culminating in our Photo Day. One theme Janice is particularly excited about this summer is Pirate Week with an "Ahoy Mateys" theme. During this week, campers will get to make treasure maps and a plaque with their own pirate name. It should be a yo ho ho jolly time!

Janice is joined this summer by the wonderful team of Jenna Barone, a recent graduate of Walter Panas High School and Phoebe Asch (whose twin sister Gillian also works here!) who is entering her Junior year at Horace Greeley.

In addition to daily classes for our junior campers, Janice and team also offer Interest Period activities for our senior campers who want to explore their creativity. From morning till the end of the day, the art shack is full of colorful activity and learning -- and we hope our campers enjoy displaying all their beautiful projects at home!

COOKING FUN AT NABBY!

Our new cooking program at Nabby led by Rene at Lily Berries Bakeshop, has been so fun and popular with our Senior and junior camp interest periods! We wanted to share one of our simple recipes from the class if you want to enjoy as a family! Yummmmm

ATTENTION NABBY PARENTS:

There has been a recent recall of sunscreen products that we wanted to be sure to bring to your attention. The recall involves four Neutrogena sunscreen versions — Beach Defense aerosol sunscreen, Cool Dry Sport aerosol sunscreen, Invisible Daily Defense aerosol sunscreen and Ultra Sheer aerosol sunscreen — and Aveeno Protect + Refresh aerosol sunscreen.

Please let us know if we have them here at camp so we can remove and plan to send alternate products.

Be sure to follow us on Instagram and Facebook and join our social community for great photos and behind the scenes content from Nabby!
