WEEK 3 JULY 15TH - JULY 19TH

5 YEAR CAMPERS & SUPERHEROES RULE!

SUPERHEROES TAKE CENTER STAGE!

Superheroes from all over the galaxy assembled at Nabby on Friday when they heard it was SuperHero Day! Campers arrived in capes, masks and colorful costumes including many tributes to Spider-Man, The Flash, Shark Boy and Wonder Woman! At morning announcements, our campers were treated to introductions of our superhero visitors including Batman, Superman, Batgirl, Thor, Hulk, Captain Marvel and Ironman just to name a few!

Our superheroes also came to the rescue of Rita, who was captured by arch villains! Our campers cheered as Thor and Captain America saved the day!! Just another extraordinary day at Nabby!

★ FIVE YEAR CAMPERS HONORED

We are fortunate to have so many 5-year campers this summer, that we plan to have two ceremony presentations this summer. Our first ceremony last Monday featured campers ranging in age from Harvard all the way through to Penn and Jackson!

All of our honorees received lots of applause and a red Nabby jersey with a big number 5 on the front! Congratulations to all of our campers of this fantastic Nabby milestone.

CAPTURE THE FLAG: A CLASSIC NABBY EPIC!

In our featured weekly epic competition, Red and White teams from the senior camp battled for Capture the Flag supremacy! The goal of Capture the Flag is to grab the flag (or ball) from the opposing teams circle and carry it across the midfield line before being tagged. Points are awarded for capturing your opponent's flag. Throughout the game, campers participated as jail guards, runners, three legged teams and decoys. Our four youngest senior camp groups (Barnard, Columbia, Radcliffe & Duke) and four oldest groups (Douglass, Tulane, Jackson & Penn) competed in separate rounds. When not on the field of play, campers cheered on their teams and team captains devised strategies and coached campers in their respective positions. The leadership and gameplay from both the Red and White teams was fantastic!

After the final tally was counted Head Judge Marc from Tulane declared the Red team as the victors!!!! The captain of the Red team, Luke from Penn, said "the red team's defense was fantastic and opened up the field for our three legged runners". Will and Zev from Penn's Red team said their success as a three legged team came from using an "in/out" chant as they ran together to remain in sync with each other.

Both teams were winners for their efforts and as is Nabby tradition, celebrated together with a refreshing post-competition watermelon!

SCHOOL SPIRIT AT CAMP!

Local elementary, middle school, high school and college colors were on display at Nabby this week on School Pride Day! It was great to see so many schools represented!

SEEN AROUND CAMP....

Ranger Rick introduced many of our campers to lizards this week including Nabby's own bearded dragon and leopard gecko!

In our science interest periods, campers enjoyed building "Doodling Shake Bots" - robots that run on batteries which are connected to small motors. Our campers discovered that the robot can start drawing a design once the circuit was complete and the button/switch was integrated into the circuit so they could turn it on and off.

Dancers from our 3rd grade interest period performed a choreographed routine to Dua Lipa's "Dance the Night Away" for the entire camp to enjoy!

LIP SYNC BATTLES ON!

Round 2 in the counselor Lip Sync Battle took place last Thursday on the Nabby stage. Emcee Jake from Columbia introduced the two acts vying to remain in the competition...Robbie vs. Bobby, both from Aerial Adventure!

Robbie came on stage first with an Elvis costume and wig straight from the 70's and gave a rousing rendition of "Jailhouse Rock". He even had Mike from music playing the "slide trombone" when that lyric came up in the song! Bobby then turned up the heat when he came out on stage lip syncing to "Story of Us" by Taylor Swift. With Jack from tennis on the bongos and Jack from Aerial Adventure on guitar, Robbie ran through the audience, even engaging some "Swifties" from Jackson to join him on the stage. Both acts were amazing and the winner was...ooohhh we have to wait till Monday to find out!!! Oh my, the suspense!
